
Myel comes to class on time, prepared to work, and follows rules and policies of the program. When he doesn't understand something, he is not afraid to ask. When Myel is faced with personal issues he does not let them stir his focus away from the classroom.

